DYE, DYEING, DEAD (PAPERBACK)

Limestone Ledge Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .If you love herbal, gardening or crafting mysteries, you ll love this 35,000 Word Novella. Kendra Louise Harper is a folklorist, avid gardener and accidental sleuth. All she wanted to do that nice day in September was help her Aunt Jewel with a Natural Dyeing with Plants workshop for the Nameless Garden Club. Before the workshop is over, a dead body is found face down in a pool of glass and indigo in Jewel s courtyard garden. The next door neighbor swears that he saw Aunt Jewel whack the victim over the head with a silver hammer. No one else really believes Aunt Jewel killed Mrs. Bunch--that is, except maybe the sheriff. And he s the one who counts. He d just as soon throw Jewel Moore in jail as look at her. But he has no solid proof; he s not going to waste his time trying to prove her innocent. He d rather bide his time and wait for the murderer to slip up and come to him. Kendra decides that if anything is going to be done to get her aunt off the hook, she ll have to do it. Along with Kendra s friends---a very colorful waiter at Do-Lolly s Diner named Jeremy, Deputy Jim Wyman (Kendra s love interest), Ginger Marshall (a local art quilter) and her friends---she sets out to prove that her aunt is innocent. The victim, Mrs. Eula Mae Bunch, was not a popular person in Nameless. As Kendra gathers information, she realizes that Mrs. Bunch was probably the most unpopular person in town---for good reason. As one resident said, That old woman is meaner than a room full of peckish wolverines. Why...
