Changes as great have occurred in other places. Old Vermont Inn On the site of the town of Island Pond, only a few squirrels and muskrats lived when the surveyors for the railroad first camped there, and in summer the deer came daily to the pond to drink Now there is a village of over a thousand people. The fathers of this generation hunted on the land where the depot in the city of Rutland now stands. It was a great swamp, and large piles, or logs, were driven into the ground to build the depot. Vermonters can now easily go in one day by...
