Excerpt from The Immortal Gymnasts Then, still on the trail of respectability, they must needs have some visible means of support. Pantaloon decides to feign to be a commissionaire in delicate health, one seldom able Poor man, he has such a cough -to run the errands of the neighbourhood. Harlequin, seduced by the roving, picturesque life of the Sandwichman, hastily adopts that calling which is susceptible of being followed, more or less successfully, by either the languid or the athletic. Bina, for her part, practical little housewife, sets up a milk-and-egg butter-and-cream shop in a small dwelling that serves as roof-tree for them all.
