BookBaby, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Anyone who's ever given serious thought to writing will benefit from this boot camp in a book! Sara Connell shares the exact techniques she used to go from unpublished writer to successful author with an agent, book contract, publication in national magazines and a nomination for Elle magazine Book of the Year for her first book, Bringing in Finn. For writers, 21 Ways is like having a personal writing coach, guiding you through the writing and publishing process, stretching you into your genius and leading you to your greatest success. Aspiring, emerging and established professional writers will benefit from Sara Connell's coaching expertise on developing author confidence, effective craft strategies and insider tips to get published. Going beyond the typical recommendations to write every day and celebrate rejections, 21 Ways to Double Your Productivity, Improve Your Craft Get Published! offers writers a wealth of innovative strategies to achieve success and creative fulfillment as an author in today's publishing landscape.
