By Dr Christina Mehriary

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.At first glance, this clever work appears to be the gut wrenching account of recent events of US military campaigns in war torn regions of the Middle East, but the second chapter derails this notion entirely. A young woman, the beautiful adolescent daughter of a wealthy and powerful business mogul is kidnapped while on safari. Several fascinating themes intertwine to unfold a complex conspiracy theory which is as thought provoking and plausible as it is unsettling and terrifying. One might be tempted to consider the hero of the story the dashing young FBI agent, Jordan Sky, but a surprising turn of events reveals the hero to be the most unlikely; the account moves and inspires one to be as brave and bold as she. The story launches the reader on a journey across several continents, entertains and tantalizes with vibrant details of a variety of cultures and customs. The technology to potentially destroy the human race through cyber terrorism, as a consequence of human pride and arrogance, hybris (aka, hubris) already exists and this creative work sends a compelling message,...
