Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from High-Speed and Carbon Tool Steels Previous to 1909, each of the U.S. navy yards prepared requisitions for the purchase of tool steels for its own purposes. These requisitions either specified that proprietary material should be purchased or that the award of contract be based on information obtained by a test of some description on samples submitted by the bidders. By this method, there could be no uniformity in the specifications of the navy yards, and in order to centralize purchasing and to standardize the tool steels, a tool steel board recommended that the Philadelphia Navy Yard be made the purchasing station. This action was taken in 1909 and at that time specifications were drawn up for one high-speed steel and three grades of carbon steel. The chemical composition required for the high-speed steel differed from that of any of the commercial brands, but the chemical composition of each grade of carbon steel corresponded to that of commercial tool steels. The three grades of carbon tool steel varied principally in their carbon content, in order to...
