The defective arrangement of the Exhibition, markedly inferior to that of Paris in 1867, rendered it difficult to make a comparative examination of exhibits of a similar character from different countries. This was true in an especial degree of the matter of deaf-mute instruction; that is to say, it was almost impossible to be certain one had discovered, even after long search, all that might exist in the Exhibition relating to this specialty in the departments of education or public charities. 2. For the credit of the several states of Europe where establishments for deaf and dumb exist, it is to be hoped that the following report may be found to be imperfect, and that much more than we were able to discover met the eyes of observers more fortunate than ourselves. Otherwise, the fact will pass into history that, of the hundreds of institutions in Europe, but five, and four of these in Austria, contributed anything to the Welt-Ausstellung. From the imperial royal institution in Vienna, a set of...
