Excerpt: .fellow pastors and the churches of Christ some possible hindrances to the highest success in saving souls, and some helps. First of all, there is a kind of preaching that directly tends to salvation. It is of first importance to aim at a definite end, and then adjust means to the end. Pulpit essays and popular lectures may entertain and instruct, and many a good exposition of the Word may edify disciples, yet all these may have not the least tendency to bring a lost sinner to Christ. There may be nothing to arouse or awaken, to convince of sin or lead to repentance and faith. Many a sermon does not even appeal to men for a decision; the preacher expects no such movement among his hearers, and makes no effort to induce it. On the other hand, a man who is intelligently a...
